To the R E A D E R.

Learning being a thing of so general and universal use, there cannot be too much care to breed up Children to it, and though there have been many Books already of this kind, yet I hope this may not be thought unnecessary, it being in so plain and easie a Method, that it may suit with the meanest Capacity; and it may be there may be some things in it, that others have not yet taken notice of.

I have here set down most common Words that I could meet with in the Bible and elsewhere, from One to Six and Seven Syllables, and they are both whole and divided into their distinct Syllables, for the better ease and understanding of Learners; I have also added many proper Names in the same Method.

And because I have observed that it doth much puzzle and confound Strangers and young beginners, that there are so many Words in our English Tongue, which are Written and Printed very differently from what they are commonly pronounced, I have here endeavoured to shew the difference in most of the Words I could think of, and the Ingenious way from hence judge of others.

I have also added a Table of Words, which have the same sound in the pronouncing of them, and yet are very different in their Spelling, Sence, and Pronunciation.

Hereunto also is annexed the signification of most of our English Christian Names; Together with the use of our Stops and Points in Reading and Writing, as also some Copies of mixt Secretary, Italian, and Roman Hands, engraven in Copper, for the Learner to practise by; with several other things: Which I hope may be helpful to Youth in the speedy and exact Reading and Writing the English Tongue: Which is the aim and desire of make by adding a to the first glad, e to the second bleſs, i to the third ſing, o to the fourth Lord, u to the fifth pluck.

A Conſonant between two Vowels is uſually joyned to the latter, as be-fore, re-ward.

When a Conſonant is doubled in the middle of a word, as Ladder, differ, one Letter is joyned to the firſt Syllable, and the other to the latter, thus Lad-der, Dif-fer.

And it is alſo, if two Conſonants come between two Vowels, as in ſel-dom, trum-pet, becauſe ld and mp are not proper to begin any word.

But if three Conſonants which are proper to begin a word come between two Vowels, then the Conſonants muſt not be ſeparated, but muſt be joyned to the Vowel following, as con-ſtrain-ed, not conſ-train ed, nor con ſtr-ain-ed, becauſe ſtr are proper to begin a word.

Theſe Conſonants of two Letters may alſo begin words, cr dr dw fl fr gr kn pl pr ſc ſh ſl ſp ſt sk ſn ſn ſq ſw th tr tw wh wr.

There are alſo Conſonants of three Letters with which words may be begun, ſcr phr ~~ſqu~~ ſpr ſkr thr thw ſpl.

Diptongs are proper or improper. The proper Diptongs are eight, ai, ei, oi, au, eu, ou, ee, oo. The improper Diptongs are ſix, ay, ey, oy, aw, ew, ow. They differ not much in ſound, but differ very much in writing; for the proper Diptongs are to be uſed in the beginning and middle, as in Oiſter, fair, air, either; but when you have the ſame ſounds in the ending of a word, you muſt write, ay, ey, oy, as may, pray, joy.

In the Alphabet of Letters there are some that have made these Observations.

That there are eight mute or dumb Letters, which are B. C. D. G. P. Q. T. because they are forced to borrow the Vowel E. at the end, to help the sound.

There are eight Semi-vowels or half Vowels, namely, F. L. M. N. R. S. X. Z. all which begin their sound with E, and end in themselves.

M. P. in his Vocal Organ distinguisheth the severall Letters thus: B. f. m. p. ph. w. are Lip-Consonants. Ce. ch. ge. je. f. sh. z. are Teeth-Consonants. D. l. n. r. t. th. are Tongue-Consonants. C. g. k. q. x. are Palate-Consonants. Gh. n. ng. y. are Throat-Consonants.

It is observed by some, that there are Eighteen Dipthongs in our English Tongue, as you may see in the words subjoyned, which words are most of them either derived from the Hebrew, or have affinity with the Latine.

Aa. as in Paal, Isaac.
ai. Fair, despair.
au. Laud, applaud.
ea. Ease, please.
ee. Free, bleed.
ei. Receive, weight.
eo. Jeopardy, Geometry, George.
eu. Rheum, Eustace.
ie. Field, friend.
oa. Boat, Goal.
oe. Toe, shoe, Phoenix, felicity.
oi. Void, joyn.
oo. Good, food.
ou. Bloud, gourd.
ua. Guard, quake.
ue. Guerdon.
ui. Quire, build.
uo. Quoth.

There are also these ten Triphthongs, which contain three Vowels sounded together in one word, as eau in Beauty; ieu in lieu, adieu, view; uai in quail, acquaint; uee in Queen; uea in queasie, squeak, quean; uoi in quoit, quoif, aw in Law, Bawd, Daw; ew in dew, new, slew; ow in now, know, how.

The LORD's Prayer.

OUR Fa-ther which art in Hea-ven, Hal-low-ed be thy Name; Thy King-dom come; Thy Will be done on Earth as it is in Hea-ven; Give us this day our dai-ly Bread; and for-give us our Tres-pas-ses, as we for-give them that tres-pas a-gainst us; and lead us not in-to Temp-ta-ti-on; but de-li-ver us from E-vil; for Thine is the King-dom, Pow-er and Glo-ry, for e-ver, and e-ver. A-men.

The CREED or Christian BELIEF.

I Be-lieve in God the Fa-ther Al-migh-ty, Ma-ker of Hea-ven and Earth, and in Je-sus Christ his one-ly Son our Lord who was con-ceiv-ed by the Ho-ly Ghost, born of the Vir-gin Ma-ry, suf-fer-ed un-der Pon-ti us Pi-late, was cru-ci-fi-ed dead and bu-ri-ed; he de-scen-ded in-to Hell, the third day he rose a-gain from the dead, he a-scen-ded in-to Hea-ven, and sit-teth on the right hand of God the Fa-ther Al-migh-ty, from thence he shall come to judge both the quick and the dead; I believe in the Ho-ly Ghost, the Ho-ly Ca-tho-lick Church, the Com-mu-ni-on of Saints, the For-give-ness of Sins, the Re-sur-rec-ti-on of the Bo-dy, and the Life E-ver-last-ing. A-men.

AND God spake these words, saying,
I am the Lord thy God which brought thee out of the Land of Egypt, out of the House of Bondage.

1. Thou shalt have no other Gods before me.

2. Thou shalt not make unto thy self any Graven Image, or the likeness of any thing that is in Heaven above, or that is in the Earth beneath, or that is in the water under the Earth; thou shalt not bow down thy self to them, nor serve them; for I the Lord thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the Fathers upon the Children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me, and shew mercy unto thousands, of them that love me and keep my Commandments.

3. Thou shalt not take the Name of the Lord thy God in vain, for the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh his Name in vain.

4. Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy, six days shalt thou labour, and do all thy work, but the seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God; in it thou shalt not do any work, Thou, nor thy Son, nor thy Daughter, thy Manservant, nor thy Maid-servant, nor thy Cattle, nor thy Stranger that is within thy gates; for in six days the Lord made Heaven and Earth, the Sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day; wherefore the Lord blessed the Sabbath day and hallowed it.

5. Honour thy Father and thy Mother, that

that thy days may be long upon the Land which the Lord thy God giveth thee.

6. Thou shalt not kill.

7. Thou shalt not commit Adultery.

8. Thou shalt not steal.

9. Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy Neighbour.

10. Thou shalt not covet thy Neighbours House, thou shalt not covet thy Neighbours Wife, nor his Manservant, nor his Maid-servant, nor his Ox, nor his Ass, nor any thing that is thy Neighbours.

P S A L M I.

Blessed is the Man that walk-eth not in the counsel of the un-god-ly, nor standeth in the way of Sin-ners, nor sit-teth in the seat of the scorn-ful.

But his de-light is in the Law of the Lord, and in his Law doth he me-di-tate day and night.

And he shall be like a Tree plan-ted by the Rivers of wa-ter, that bring-eth forth his fruit in his sea-son; his leaf al-so shall not wi-ther, and what-so-e-ver he doth shall pro-sper.

The un-god-ly are not so, but are like the Chaff which the wind dri-veth a-way.

There-fore the un-god-ly shall not stand in the judg ment; nor sin-ners in the Con-gre-ga-tion of the Righ-te-ous.

For the Lord know-eth the way of the Righ-te-ous, but the way of the un-god-ly shall pe-rish.

St. Matthew, Chap. I.

The first Epistle of St. John, Chap. 2.

1. MY Little Children, these things write I unto you, that ye sin not. And if any man sin, we have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the Righteous.

2. And he is the Propitiation for our sins ; and not for ours onely, but for the sins of the whole World.

3. And hereby we know that we know him, if we keep his Commandments.

4. He that saith he knoweth him, and keepeth not his Commandments is a Lyar, and the Truth is not in him.

5. But whoso keepeth his Word, in him verily is the love of God perfected, hereby know we that we are in him.

6. He that saith he abideth in him, ought himself also to walk even as he walked.

7. Brethren, I write no new Commandment unto you, but an old Commandment which he had from the beginning ; the old Commandment is the word which ye have heard from the beginning.

8. Again, a new Commandment I write unto you which thing is true in him, and in you, because the darkness is past, and the true light now shineth.

9. He that saith he is in the Light, and hateth his Brother, is in Darkness even until now.

10. He that loveth his Brother abideth in the Light, and there is no occasion of stumbling in him.

11. But he that hateth his Brother is in darkness, and walketh in darkness, and knoweth not whither he goeth, because that darkness hath blinded his eyes.

David's Lamentation over Saul and Jonathan, 2 Sam. 1. 19.

THE Beauty of Israel is slain
Upon the places high :
How are the Mighty fallen down !
In Gath this never cry,
Nor tell't in streets of Askelon,
lest Philistines rejoyce:
Lest Daughters of the Uncircumcis'd make a Triumphant noise.

Ye Mountains high of Gilboa
Let there be never Dew:
Let neither Rain, nor Fields again
of Off'ring be on you.
For there the Shield o'th' Mighty's lost,
and vilely put to th' foil,
The Shield of Saul as he had not anointed been with Oyl.
Jonathan's Bow turned not back
from the blood of the slain;
Nor from the Mighty's fat, Saul's Sword returned not in vain.
Lovely and pleasant in their Lives
were Saul and Jonathan;
And in their death and latest breath
was no division.
They swifter werethan Eagles far stronger than Lions stout:
Ye daughters fair of Israel, spare
not for Saul to weep out.
Who clothed you in Scarlet, and
With all that might delight;
Who put on Ornaments of Gold
on your Apparel bright.
In the midst of the Fight how are the Mighty fallen down,
Oh Jonathan, how wast thou slain
in the place of Renown!
O thou my Brother Jonathan,
I am distrest for thee;
A pleasant kind Companion
Thou hast been unto me.
Thy love to me was wonderful,
past that of Women far:
How are the Mighty fallen, and how
are lost the Men of War.

There

14 Directions for Spelling and Writing English.

There are several Words that have some Letters in them that are not sounded or pronounced, yet must be used when the same Words are written.

A S A in some Words ; as we pronounce Pharoh, but must write Pharaoh, and so in Isaac, Canaan, &c.

B in some, for we must write dumb, thumb, lamb, woumb, doubt, debt ; but we pronounce them dum, thum, lam, wom, doubt, debt, &c.

C Written between a Vowel, and K is not pronounced ; as in black, check, sick, look, truck, &c.

C Written after S is not pronounced, as in descent, conscience, disciple, ascent, &c.

C before a, io, oo, commonly sounds like K ; as cat, court, custom, colour, coock : but C before ei, y, or ee, sounds like s : as censer, city, cider, cypress, exceed, proceed.

Ch in words purely English, have a peculiar sound with them, both before and after Vowels, before a Vowel, in chance, cheap, chine, choke, churl : after a Vowel, in ach, reach, rich, roch, such : But in words of Hebrew or Greek derivation Ch sounds like K, as in Che.der-la-o-mer, *A-cha*n, La-chish, Mal-chus : And so also in the end of words, as Be-ro-dach, Mel-chi-zi-dech, An- ti-och, Ba-ruch : but still except Ra-chel, Che-ru-bin, Ty-chi-cus, : as also words compounded of Arch, Arch-bishop, Ar-chi-rect.

D is not pronounced in badge, hedge, bridge, lodge, judge, friend-ship, hand-maid, wednes-day.

E is usually written, but not pronounced at the end of a word, as in horse, breathe, vertue, and is usually added not so much for necessity as beauty : But you must always except some words of a foreign derivation, as E-pi-tome, Fesse, Fu-bi-le, and others.

But e is not pronounced in the end of any English word, but in these, ye, me, be, we, he : But yet e is necessarily added to some words, or else it will alter the sense, as to write Flaming fire, e must be added, lest it be taken for a Fir tree : and so, It made me mad, e is useful, though not pronounced : and so in mile, quite, ride, fare, to distinguish them from mill, quit, rid, far : and so in others. Sometimes e is added at the end of a word to change the sound, as in face, grace : which with-without e would sound as fac, grac: e softneth the sound of g in age, stage, &c. It is usual when a word endeth in i, o, or u, to add e at the end, but it is indifferent whether it be added or omitted. When words end with a double Consonant, they must not have an e after them, as ball, ball, call, wall, fall, &c.

If e be written at the end of a word, after r or l, it comes before them in the pronouncing: as able is pronounced abel; Temple Tempel; nitre niter; crackle, crackel.

G is not pronounced in sign, reign, flegm, design, assign, but yet must be written.

Gh is sounded like ff in laugh, cough, enough, &c. G hath sometimes a hard sound, as in gain, gold, good, and sometimes a flat sound, as in Ginger, and therefore if a, o, or u follow this flat sound, it must be written with J, as Joseph, Judith, James, not Goseph, Gudith, Games: but when the sound hath i next, it is written with G, as Ginder; but when e follow, it is to be written with J, except these words following, gesture, gender, generation, gentility, geometry, genealogy, gem, gentil, and some proper names.

Gh is not often pronounced in any word, as light, bright, might, right, they are sounded lite, brite, mite, rite: and so in high, Almighty, thigh, nigh, gh are not sounded

H is written, but yet not sounded in many words, as Christ, Thomas, rhethorick, rheum Scholar, Scheme, but they are pronounced as Crist, Tomas, Retorck, Reum, Scolar, Sceme: as the sound of b is lost at the end of some words, as Shilo, Hezekiah, Isaiab, Feremiab, and others.

I is not sounded in adieu, juice, fruit, Parliament, carriage, cousin, fashion, &c.

I before r sounds like u, as thirst, third, fir, bird, thirty; and I Consonant before a Vowel is sounded as G, and written differently from an i Vowel, as joy, judge, &c.

K seems not to be sounded in back, deck, sick, thick, rock, buck, pack, &c.

L sounds not in half, calf, stalk salve, alms, balm, salmon, Faulcon, Lincoln, Bristol, Holborn, folk: but l is always pronounced in ale, scale, gale, and others.

In words of one Syllable l is usually doubled, as ball, bell, bill, bull: but if a Consonant be added at the end; it loseth a Syllable, as shalt, mitt, &c. Words of above one Syllable end in a single l, as sinful, evil, &c.

N is not founded in Solemn, condemn, Hymn, Autumn, contemn, column, &c. yet they must be written thus with an n at the end, to shew their derivation from the Latine.

O is not pronounced in youth, damosel, courage, Gaoler, people, Feapardyscourage, nourish, young, &c.

P is not founded in Tempt, Receipt, Spmptom, Psalm, Simpson, Redemption, Sumptuous, &c.

Ph is founded sometimes like F, as in Triumph, Phebe, Sulphur, Orphan, Philip, Philemon, &c. But if Ph be in two Syllables, then it is otherwise, as in Shep-herd, Clap-ham.

Q is always followed by u, whensoever it is written, although u addeth nothing to the sound thereof, as in Queen, quaker, quill, question, &c. Qu sounds like K in Liquor, Exchequer, &c.

S is not founded, but always written in Isle, Viscount, Island, &c. There is s long and s short, and you must always write s long in the beginning and middle of words, as son, soul, blossom, blessing; and s short in the ending, as Sisters, Sons, Mothers, Husbands, Lands, &c. except into words that are alterable, viz. Nouns singular into plural or Verbs into another person, as cause, causes, discourse, disburseth, disburseth; also S so foundeth like Z in some words, as ease,osome, &c.

Ti before a Vowel commonly sounds like ti, as in patience, persecution, Oration, Oration, &c. but if s go before it, then it is founded as it is writ, as in Question, Combustion, Bestial, or as it is in Titus; and so after the same manner you must pronounce those words that end in ty, as Crafty, Lof-ty, Pity, and so also loftier, loftiest.

V Consonant should differ from U Vowel, and should be pronounced as value, vain, vengeance, verily, vice, vine, voice, vultur, &c. U Vowel is not founded in guad, guest, guile, buy, build, conduit, circuit, &c. u is always joyned with Q, as quail, quick, quiet, neither is u founded in Saviour, scrupulous, &c.

W after O is not founded, as in grow, slow, yellow, shadow, widow; nor in wretch, write, wrath, &c.

Y is not pronounced in Monkey, Key, Chimney, kidney, journey, pulley; if a word end in i, we make it commonly y, as cry, reply, misery, mercy, &c.

S is pronounced like Z in some words, as lose, abuse, use, sins, Sons, &c.

Now though there may be reason for many of these superfluous Letters, because they they shew from whence the words are derived, yet it might be wisht they were written as they are spoken, which would make it easier both to strangers and our selves also. There is a brief Table at the end to shew you the difference that there is in Writing and Pronouncing many words.

Since Points, Stops, or Notes, used by the Learned in Writing, are not the least part of Orthography, or the right manner of writing, I thought good to give an account of them in brief, and they are these:

A Comma	(,)
Semicolon	(;)
Colon	(:)
A full-point	(.)
Afterism	(*)
A note of Admiration	(!)
A note of Interrogation	(?)
A Parenthesis	()
Obelisk	(†)
Hypen (-) An Index	☞

1. A Comma is a note of convenient silence, or rather a breathing time to that which succeeds, marked thus---

As for Example, Love's Companions be unquiet longings, fond comforts, faint discomforts, hopes, jealousies, carefulness.

2. A Semicolon is a pause somewhat longer than a Comma, and thus noted---;

Example, Her witty persuasions had wise answers; her eloquence recompensed with sweetness; her threatnings repelled with disdain.

3. A Colon is a middle distinction between a Comma and a Full-stop in the middle of a Sentence, marked thus---

Example, If I speak nothing, I choke my self, and am in no way of relief: If simply, neglected: If confused, not understood: If I express any thing very lively of what I truly feel, this is a token, forsooth, my thoughts are too much at leisure.

4. A Period is a perfect or full Point, to put at the end of a compleat Sentence, marked thus---

Example, Lines cannot blush, so as Modesty admits a freedom to my Pen, which would be taxed immodestly being delivered by the Tongue.

5. A note of Exclamation or Admiration is thus noted---!

Example, Oh endless endeavours! O vain-glorious ignorance!

6. A note of Interrogation thus---?

Example, What shall I do? Whether shall I flee? Whom shall I blame? What shall I pretend?

7. A Parenthesis is shutting a Sentence between two half Moons, which notwithstanding the discourse remains intire,, noted thus--()

Example, Tell me ingenuously (if there be any ingenuity in you) whether you did not know it.

8. Index thus,  is to note from the Margin what is remarkable.

9. Obelisk noted thus † always refers to from the matter in the Margin.

10. Asterism thus marked * when any part of a Sentence is lost or wanting.

11. Hyphen marked thus (-) is a note of Connexion, as some-times, House-keeping.

Moral Precepts and Instructions for Youth, which may also serve for Copies to write out.

A Wise Man ought to be content, though poor,
 He's only rich that doth desire no more.
 Be well advis'd, and wary counsel take,
 E're thou dost any Action undertake,
 Close in thy Bosom lock up thy Intent
 For he that knows thy purpose best prevents.
 Defend the Truth, for that who will not die,
 A Coward is, and gives himself the lye.
 Ever thy Credit keep, 'tis quickly gone,
 Being got by many Actions, lost by one.
 Fly Drunkenness, whose vile Incontinence
 Takes away both the Reason and the Sense.
 Grateful unto thy Friends be, so thou'lt gain
 Their second help, if thou should'lt need again.
 Hear much, but little speak; a wise man fears,
 And will not use his Tongue, so much as Ears.
 Judge not between two Friends, but rather see
 If thou canst bring them friendly to agree.
 Keep thy self humble, Pride hath ruin'd many,
 The proud man's seldom well belov'd of any
 Live well, and then how soon soe're thou die,
 Thou art of Age to claim Eternity.
 Make spare in Youth, lest age should find thee poor,
 when time is past, and thou canst spare no more.

Great is the Glori that is won
Having the Pens Perfection

Never to gather wealth, through fraud presume,
 A little evil got will much consume.
 Over thy Reason let not Lust prevail,
 'Twill misery on thee and thine intail.
 Praise not thy self, nor thy own worth, nor be
 The first that knows thy own sufficiency.
 Quietly learn all crosses to endure,
 Repining doth more misery procure.
 Refrain much talk: you seldom hear of any
 Undone by hearing, but by speaking many.
 So live with Man as if God's curious Eye
 Did every-where into thine Actions pry.
 To all alike be courteous, meek, and kind,
 A winning carriage, with indifferent mind.
 Use Patience whate're haps, though bad it be,
 Take it for good, and 'twill be so to thee.
 Who spends too much, may want, and so complain;
 But he spends best, that spares to spend again.
 Xerxes with Tears surveys his mighty Host,
 Thinking how soon they'd all be dead and lost.
 Yesterday's past, to morrow's none of thine,
 To day thy life to vertuous Acts incline.
 Zealously practice what is good and then
 Great will be thy Reward in Bliss. Amen.

Some Copies Alphabetical for Youth to Write out.

Anger destroys the Fool, and he that hath
 A wrathful Heart, is slain with his own wrath.
 Best are the Goods mixt with contented rest,
 Not that which most do cover is the best.
 Count what's more sweet and fair than a Flower,
 And yet it blooms and fades within an hour.
 Delight and Pleasure's but a Golden Dream,
 Which waking makes our wants the more extream.
 Each man his Pot, each man his Course doth bend,
 Each hath his Project, and each one his End.
 Fond man, first seek to purchase that Divine
 Prize, Wisdom, and then all the World is thine.
 Grasp not for Honour, with no blazing Glory,
 For these will perish in an Age's Story.
 How poor a thing is man, how vain, how brittle,
 How seeming great is he, how truly little!
 In loving God, if I neglect my Neighbour,
 My zeal hath lost its proof, and I my Labour.
 Knowledge, when Wisdom is too weak to guide her,
 Is like a head-strong Horse that throws his Rider.
 Lord, give me Wisdom to direct my ways;
 I beg not Riches, nor yet length of days.
 My Life's a Flower, the time it hath to last,
 Is mixt with Frost, and shook with every Blast.
 Not House nor Land, nor measured heaps of Wealth,
 Can render to a dying Man his Health.
 Our Life on Earth is like a thread of Flax,
 That all may touch, and being toucht it cracks.

Pleasure

Pleasure is fleeting still, and makes no stay,
 It lends a Smile or twain, and steales away.
 Quench soon the flames of Lust. and have a care
 Of wanton Women, they will prove a snare.
 Reprove not in their wrath incensed men,
 Good Counsel comes quite out of season then.
 Spare not, nor spend too much, be this thy care,
 Spare but to spend, and only spend to spare.
 To tell thy miseries, will no comfort breed,
 Men help thee most that think thou hast no need.
 Use not to swear, an Oath's a dangerous Dart
 Which shot, rebounds to strike the Shooter's Heart.
 Whoever makes his Fathers heart to bleed,
 Shall have a Child that will revenge the deed.
 Xerxes did vainly lash the Seas, but they
 His foolish threatnings scorn to obey.
 Youth think old men are Fools; but old men know
 By dear Experience, that youth are so.
 Zeal is a fire, and useful in its kind,
 But nothing is more dangerous, if blind.

Of Great LETTERS.

Great Letters, or Capitals, are of use, either to begin Sentences or proper Names, or else of somethings that are remarkable: And some very remarkable sentences are written all in Capitals, as in Zechary, HOLINESS TO THE LORD. In Jeremiah, THE LORD OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS. In Revelations, KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS. and so in several other places: They do also serve to begin Titles of Books, as THE HOLY BIBLE, or THE NEW TESTAMENT, or to Divine Books, as THE SECOND BOOK OF KINGS. Capital Letters begin Sentences; as Our Father which art in Heaven, &c. and, I believe in God the Father, &c. as also proper Names of Men, as Adam, Moses, David, Jesus, Peter, John, Matthew, Luke, Charles, Mars, Apollo. &c.

Great Letters are also used in noting the proper Names of Countries, Cities, Towns, Arts, Sciences, Dignities, Offices, Days Months, Winds, Places, Rivers; as for Example, Asia, Africa, Europe, America, England, Scotland, Ireland, France, Spain, Spain, Holland, Germany, Paris, Vienna, Madrid, Amsterdam, Constantinople, Rome, Windsor, Dunkirk, Callis, Printer, Merchant, Astronomy, Grammar, Musick, Rhetorick, Logick, Arithmetick, King, Queen, Prince, Parliament, Pope, Cardinal, Duke, Earl, Lord, Knight, Esquire, Bishop, Dean, Prebend, Doctor, Parson, Vicar, Ambassador, Treasurer, Agent, General, Colonel, Captain, Lieutenant, Ensign, Munday, Tuesday, January, February, Christmas, Easter, Whitsontide, Lent, North, South, East, West, Whitehall, Hampton, Greenwich, Thames, Severn, Tyber, Po.

And every Book, Chapter, Section, and Paragraph, must begin with a great Letter, as also after a Period or Full-stop.

Also when the words of another are quoted, they ought to begin with a great Letter, as Gen. 42. 32. And the Man, the Lord of the Country, said unto us, Hereby shall I know that you are true men, &c.

Also in Poetry every line is usually begun with a great Letter, tho' the former line ended in the middle of a Sentence, as

Fly Idleness, which yet thou canst not fly

By dressing, mistressing, and Complement;

If those take up the Day, the Sun will cry

Against thee; for his light was only lent.

God gave the Soul brave Wings, but not those Feathers

Into a Bed, to sleep out all ill Weathers.

The Figures and Letters whereby Numbers are expressed, are these.

1 one I.

2 two II.

3 three III.

4 four IIII, or IV.

5 five V.

6 six VI.

7 seven VII.

8 eight VIII.

9 nine IX.

10 ten X.

11 eleven XI.

12 twelve XII.

13 thirteen XIII.

14 fourteen XIV.

15 fifteen XV.

16 sixteen XVI.

17 seventeen XVII.

18 eighteen XVIII.

19 nineteen XIX.

20 twenty XX.

30 thirty XXX.

40 forty XL.

50 fifty L.

60 sixty LX.

70 seventy LXX.

80 eighty LXXX.

90 ninety

90 ninety XC.	100000 an hundred thousand
100 one hundred C.	CCCCI0000.
200 two hundred CC.	500000 five hundred thousand
500 five hundred D or I0.	I000000.
1000 thousand M or CI0.	1000000 ten hundred thousand
5000 five thousand I00.	or a Million CCCCCCI000000
10000 ten thousand CCI00.	1682 one thousand six hundred
50000 fifty thousand I000.	eighty two MDCLXXXII.

Note, that the lesser number set before, takes away so much as itself is, from the greater, but being set after, adds so much to it, as IV make four, but VI six; IX nine, but XI eleven.

If you would express one and a half, or two and a half, it must be thus:

$$\begin{array}{r} \text{I} \qquad \text{I} \\ \text{I} \text{—} \qquad 2 \text{—} \\ 2 \qquad \qquad 2 \end{array}$$

Two and three quarters thus:

$$\begin{array}{r} 3 \\ 2 \text{—} \\ 4 \end{array}$$

Having learned to know the Figures and Marks whereby Numbers are expressed, the next thing that is necessary is, how to make use of them in the way of Trade, or Business, to which end we must know all Numbers are expressed by these Characters, 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 0. Which last Cypher signifies nothing of itself, but serves to fill up the number of places; and therefore every Figure hath a double value, one single and certain, and the other uncertain, according as it is placed.

Now because it is not intended to give you a Body of Arithmetick, I shall only shew how to cast up a small Sum, as suppose you have Received

	l.	s.	d.
Of one man	0	1	6
Of another	0	2	3
Of another	1	3	2
Of another	0	9	8
Of another	3	7	11
Of another	2	4	2

If you would know what all these Sums amount to, you must do thus: Go to the outmost row of Figures on the right hand, and say,

2 and 11 is 13, then make a point against 11, and carry 1 to the next, and say, 1 I carried and 8 is 9, and 2 is 11, and

3 is 14, then make another point at 3, and carry, and say, 2 and 6 is 8, which 8 set down at the bottom under the said Figures, and say, 2 I carry from the Pence, and 4 is 6, and 7 ss 13, and 9 is 22, put a point at 9, and carry 2, and say, 2 and 3 is 5, and 2 is 7, and 1 is 8, which 8 put under this row; then go to the next row, and say, 1 Pound I carry and 2 is 3, and 3 is 6, and 1 is 7; which put underneath. and then the Sum appears thus:

0	2	3
1	3	2
0	9	8
3	7	11
2	4	2
<hr/>

The Year is commonly divided into twelve unequal Calendar-Months, whose Name, and the number of Days they contain, follow.

	days		days
January	31	March	31
February	28	April	30
		May

May,	31	September	30
June	30	October	31
July	31	November	30
August	31	December	31

Which are briefly sum'd up in these four Verses:

*Thirty Days hath September,
April, June, and November,
February hath twenty eight alone,
All the rest thirty and one.*

So that the Year contains 365 Days and six Hours, but the six Hours are not reckoned, but only every fourth Year, and then a Day is added to February, which then contains 29 Days, and that Year is called Leap-Year, and contains 366 Days.

The Four Quarter-days in the Year are March 25, called Lady-day; June 24, called Midsummer-day; September 29, called Michaelmas-day; December 25, called Christmas.

The Country-men do also sometimes divide the Year into four other Quarters, that is February 2, called Candlemas-day; May 1, called May-day; August 1, called Lammas; November 1, called All-Saints-day.

Apothecaries use Marks or Figures to express Words, Weight, or Measure; as thus: \mathcal{R} [Recipe] or take; ana, or a like quantity; \mathfrak{p} . [a pugil, or] half a handful; \mathfrak{m} . [manipulus] a handful; \mathfrak{gr} . a Grain, \mathfrak{ss} a Scruple, \mathfrak{z} a Dram, \mathfrak{z} an Ounce, \mathfrak{ss} [semissis] half a Pound, \mathfrak{lb} [libra] a Pound, $\mathfrak{q. s.}$ [quantum satis] a sufficient quantity, $\mathfrak{q. l.}$ [quantum libet] as much as you please.

Astronomers and Astrologers express the seven Planets and Signs by these Marks or Characters. The Planets are these: \mathfrak{h} Saturn, \mathfrak{J} Jupiter, \mathfrak{M} Mars, \odot Sol, \mathfrak{V} Venus, \mathfrak{M} Mercurius, \mathfrak{L} Luna. The twelve Signs are these: \mathfrak{A} Aries, \mathfrak{T} Taurus, \mathfrak{II} Gemini, \mathfrak{C} Cancer, \mathfrak{L} Leo, \mathfrak{M} Virgo, \mathfrak{B} Libra, \mathfrak{M} Scorpio, \mathfrak{S} Sagittarius, \mathfrak{W} Capricornus, \mathfrak{A} Aquarius, \mathfrak{P} Pisces. The Sextile \mathfrak{X} , Quadral \square , Trine \triangle , Opposition \mathfrak{O} , Conjunction \mathfrak{C} .

Musicians distinguish their Notes by these Marks:

— Semibref, — Minim, — Crotchet.

In our English Writing there are also many Abbreviations, that we make use of, which we borrow from the Latine, as e. gr. (exempli gratia) for example; and over our Accompts we commonly write

l. s. d. q.
2 4 6 2

The Scholar's Prayer for the Morning.

MOST Holy and Eternal Lord, I thy most poor and unworthy Creature, do give Thee most humble and hearty Thanks that it hath pleased thy great Goodness to preserve me this Night past, as well from all my Enemies, as from all other Casualties and Dangers that poor mortal Creatures are subject to, and that thou hast given me sweet and pleasant Sleep, that I find my Body refreshed and comforted for performing the Duties of this day. It is thou that hast said, If any man want wisdom, let him ask it of God that giveth to all men liberally, and reproacheth no man, and it shall be given unto him. I beseech Thee, breathe into my Soul the Spirit of Understanding, that in my Childhood I may learn, and as I grow further in years, I may practise the study of those things onely that are agreeable to thy Laws: grant that I may always carefully seek for the Pearls of true Knowledge; pour into me thy Holy Spirit, that all my travel and pains being blest in study by Thee, I may be thankful to Thee: O loving Father, be thou my School-master to instruct me, and when I have attained to some measure of Gifts, let me not be proud in mine own conceit, but carry my self humbly, knowing I have nothing but what I have received. Ble my dear Parents, my Kindred and Friends, and grant that I may live so in this World to thy honour, that I may be a comfort to them, and may at last inherit the Kingdom prepared for all those that love Thee, through Jesus Christ our Lord and Saviour. Amen.

A Prayer for the Evening.

GRACIOUS Lord God, and Heavenly Father, I cannot cease, but I must cry unto thee for Mercy, because my Sins cry out against me for Justice, how shall I address my self to thee, but with the Publican I must stand and admire thy Goodness toward me, in that thou hast kept me this day past from being consumed or brought to nought: for Lord, what is Man, or the Son of Man that thou regardest him! for the more days pass over my head,
the

the more Sins and Iniquities I heap up against thee. O Blessed Father, let thy Son's Blood wash me and cleanse me from all my Impurities, and from all the stains of Sin that are upon me, own me as thy Child, and shadow me with thy Wings, that I may safely take my rest in thy Protection this Night, that I may behold the next day with comfort, and may serve in it, and endeavour to grow up more and more in Learning and true Knowledge. Bless my Parents, Kindred, Friends, and Relations; and grant that when they and I have past our Pilgrimage here, we may all attain to thy Heavenly Kingdom; and all I beg in the Name of Jesus Christ, in whose most Holy Words I further pray, Our Father, &c.

Short Graces, or Thanksgivings to be used before and after Meat, by Children and others.

Before M E A T.

*S*anctifie, O Lord, unto us the use of these thy Creatures, of which by our Sins we have made our selves unworthy, and grant that the end of our Eating and Drinking may be to be better enabled to serve thee in our several places, through Jesus Christ our Lord and Saviour. Amen.

After M E A T.

*M*ost gracious God, as thou hast now filled our Bodies with thy good Creatures, so be pleased we beseech thee, to feed our Souls, and to endue us with all Spiritual Blessings in Heavenly things. through Jesus Christ our Lord and Saviour. Amen.
